Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 16 and 22-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Shum (Publication No.: US 2003/0009507 A1, filed June 29, 2001).
7. Regarding Claims 16, 23, 30, 45, Shum teaches a system and method for application performance management.

The method and associated system for a system and method for application performance management as taught or suggested by Shum includes:

Database router mediating communications between client and database server of the database network (§0046); update data object of client of database network (§0046); wait for database server to report successful (§0046) and report allowing access to update object (§0046).

8. Regarding Claim 22, Shum teaches second load results identify communications between database router and tuning (§0046).

9. Regarding Claims 24-29, 31, 32-44, and 46, the limitations of these claims have been noted in the rejection of claims 16, 23, 30, and 45 presented above. They are therefore rejected as set forth above.

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claims 24-29, 31, 32-44, and 46 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
